INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

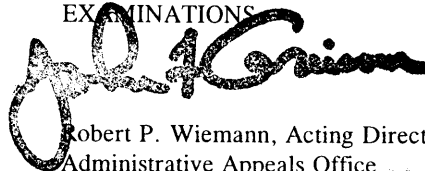

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations. The appeal will be rejected.

The petitioner is described as a jewelry wholesaler and manufacturer. The beneficiary is described as a jewelry designer. The petitioner seeks classification of the beneficiary under § 101(a)(15)(O)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the "Act") as an alien with extraordinary ability in the arts in order to employ him in the United States for a period of three years.

The center director denied the petition as abandoned pursuant to 8 C.F.R. 103.2(b)(13). Counsel for the petitioner filed a Form I-290B Notice of Appeal.

According to 8 C.F.R. 103.2(b)(13), if all requested initial evidence and requested additional evidence is not submitted by the required date, the petition shall be considered abandoned and shall be denied. 8 C.F.R. 103.2(b)(15) further states that a denial due to abandonment may not be appealed.

The decision may not be appealed to the Administrative Appeals Office ("AAO"). Therefore, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
